REPORT OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

The trustees acknowledge with gratitude the fine selection of books given to the library.

During the past year extensive work was done on the grounds in front of the building.

Shelves were added in the reference room but our shelves are still somewhat crowded and we must consider ways of adding stacks in the near future.

At a recent meeting of librarians and trustees of this area we were informed of the possibility of being served by the state bookmobile. This will greatly increase the number of books available to the children.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of North Hampton:

I herewith present to you my nineteenth report as Superintendent of your schools.

The current year began Wednesday, September 8, 1948 with an initial enrollment of 130. This number has stayed practically uniform since the number of non-membership and registrants has equalized on the books. This compares with 119 in last year's September enrollment. In order that the citizens of the district may see what is happening in their school enrollment, I am listing herewith the September registrations for the past ten years.

September Registration by Years

Year	1939	1940	1941	1942	1943	1944	1945	1946	1947	1948
Pupils	75	91	98	97	99	109	102	109	119	130

Considering the fact that two of the school rooms are not standard size it is easy to realize the almost impossible situation with which our teachers are faced. Four rooms which could satisfactorily house ninety are compelled to serve 130 or more. Modern standards suggest twenty-five square feet per pupil for determination of room size. Two of our rooms are, at the present time offering approximately thirteen sq. feet. This shows that there are nearly two times as many pupils as should be in these rooms. The other two rooms are nearly as crowded.

The proposed new building is planned to care for 175 pupils in a satisfactory manner with four rooms on the main floor and one room on the ground floor. In addition a sixth room is provided to care for additional pupils if necessary. In the unexpected circumstances that still further increase is needed, the building is so designed that an addition may easily be built.

Modern education justly considers physical education as an important objective for its work. Physical handicaps are now too numerous. A child who does not feel well is prevented from doing his best work. The people of North Hampton realize this. Provision is made in the proposed building for such training. A combined gymnasium-auditorium and lunch room offers adequate facilities for this work. This room will offer ample space for organized physical training and supervised play activities. It is in these informal activities that many valuable lessons are learned. The unsocial child is readily found while at play. The child who is mal-adjusted or who is over-sensitive can best be helped in the informality of a play period. As a laboratory for child study this gymnasium-auditorium is important.

It will be noticed that the proposed building offers a kitchen adjoining the auditorium. By this convenient arrangement noon lunches are adequately taken care of, the children eating from tables built into the wall. These tables fold back when not in use. By this plan all children may eat at the same time under teacher supervision. This combination also does away with the necessity of finishing off additional space on the ground floor for lunch service.

The auditorium furnishes the opportunity for school assemblies and dramatization of class work. This latter function is important in checking on the pupils ability to absorb thought from the printed page. This space is therefore a triple-purpose room, in addition to its use by the townspeople for numerous gatherings.

Owing to the unusually large number of pupils in the primary room it became necessary to secure an assistant for Mrs. Luippold. Mr. Luippold served as assistant teacher. His work has been of real value trained as he is in child study. The teachers deserve much credit for carrying on their work under trying conditions. Only teachers of experience could have given the pupils the education to which they have a right.

The schools of Union 21 united with those of the Exeter Union to hold a workshop for the teachers during the week of November 15 to November 19, 1948. These five days were spent for "in-service" training. The state supervisors were in charge and brought to us the latest and most approved methods of presenting subject matter. The first two days were under the direction of Dr. Gertrude Lewis, Director of Elementary School Services for the New Hampshire Board of Education. She discussed the social studies of the elementary school, outlining the entire program and helping to solve many of the problems found by teachers in their daily work. It was literally a workshop in which teacher committees worked on definite problems and arrived at their own conclusions based upon modern practices.

The last three days of the week were in charge of Dr. Lura Bruce, State Supervisor of Health and Miss Grace E. Felker, Director of Physical Education. A critical study of the health program was made. Ways of guarding the health of our children, both in school and out, and of preventing accidents were considered. The proper use of the playground as well as the school building for physical development was explained and illustrated. These workshops were held in a majority of the districts of the state. Those who did not receive these services will be offered them next year.

The small towns are constantly allowing some of the talent developed locally to move to the larger cities despite the fact that the small town offers many opportunities for young people. It would seem that the pupils in our schools should know what the local community has to offer them. The school, even in the lower grades, should develop a greater interest by school children in their own town. To this end, it is suggested that definite time be allotted in the school program for the study of local history, — the story of its founding, landmarks, folklore and special events of interest. Also included in the work should be the story of how our people now make a living together with the advantages of working in the town. The question, as to what the town now does to benefit its citizens would prove of value in stimulating future participation in government offices. The development of an interested and active citizenry will surely react to the benefit of any town or city.

To introduce such a course effectively a group of citizens should work with the teachers. I am suggesting that a few parents and town officials meet with the teachers to formulate an outline from the town history. This work should not be a formal course of study but should be offered informally throughout all the grades taking into consideration the varying ages of the pupils.

To the Parent-Teacher Association the schools are indebted not only for many gifts and services, but, perhaps more important, for its interest and understanding of the work of education. This is true of the larger as well as the local units of the organization. The Schools need this help, especially during the next few years when the problems will be more difficult from year to year. Demands made upon the schools are continually increasing while costs are becoming greater.

I am recommending that the districts of the Union make use of the Rinehart Functional Handwriting system in their schools. The system sends an expert teacher into the school each month to instruct and supervise the work of the pupils and the teachers. The service has been hired in several of the larger towns and cities of the state as well as in many Massachusetts Unions. When several districts employ the service the cost is very reasonable. Certainly it is needed and past results have shown remarkable improvement in the writing of the pupils in all their school work. I am asking that the amount necessary be placed in the budget for next year.

May I again express my appreciation to the School Board, Teachers and Parents for hearty cooperation given me in the work of the past year.

ROY W. GILLMORE,

Superintendent of Schools.

The audiometer test for hearing was given to all pupils with but one pupil having a hearing loss.

A pre-school clinic was held in June with Dr. Bailey as examining physician. Seven children were examined, six were vaccinated.

The Tuberculin Skin Test was given to the children in November and to the teachers. Only one reacted.

Visits are made to the school twice monthly and visits are made to the homes in event of sickness.

At this time I would like to thank the Red Cross who have given generously to correcting defects in underprivileged children.
